REPORTING & ASSURANCE STATEMENT STANDARD

Version 1.0

A normative standard for reports, bounded assurance statements, registers, dashboards, templates and machine-readable reporting schemas

Artifact ID: AIDCF-RAS-001
Status: Draft for controlled review
Author: Siva Sethumadhavan

Reports communicate assurance. Reports do not create assurance.

Document control

AIDCF-012 establishes a single reporting architecture for all AIDCF programs.

Element	Requirement
Purpose	Communicate scope, evidence, findings, gates, scores, UNKNOWN, decisions, limitations and validity consistently.
Inputs	Approved AIDCF-009 assessment and AIDCF-010 decision snapshot under AIDCF-011 program governance.
Outputs	Executive, technical, domain, evidence, gate, customer, regulator, public and continuing-assurance packages.
Non-certification	No report creates certification, accreditation, endorsement or guarantee.
Security	Sensitive infrastructure, identity, authority and dependency details require controlled disclosure.

Part I - Reporting doctrine

Reporting is a controlled transformation of an approved assurance record.

Element	Requirement
Evidence authority	Presentation cannot strengthen evidence.
Single source	All packages reference one authorised assessment/decision snapshot.
Audience tailoring	Detail may change; meaning and limitations may not.
No silent omission	Material gate FAIL/UNKNOWN and limitations remain visible.
Score restraint	Scores show coverage, confidence, gates and UNKNOWN.
Management separation	Management response is separate from assessor conclusion.
No certification	No certificate, mark, accreditation or universal claim.
Security	Redaction protects detail but cannot hide decision limitations.
Versioning	Stable IDs, status, correction and supersession.
Human approval	Automation drafts; accountable authorities approve.

Part II - Mandatory report content

Every material report contains the same minimum assurance facts.

Element	Requirement
Capability	Capability Instance and Service Outcomes.
Question	Decision question and prohibited interpretations.
Scope	Physical, logical, organisational, provider and temporal boundaries.
States/period	Assessed states and evidence period.
Criteria	AIDCF artifact/profile versions.
Methods	Assessment type, level and material procedures.
Evidence	Coverage, quality, sufficiency, conflict and restrictions.
Gates	All applicable gate statuses and effects.
UNKNOWN	Material unknowns, ceilings and evidence to resolve.
Scores	Raw/adjusted, coverage, confidence and profile.
Decision	Controlled AIDCF-010 state.
Validity	Conditions, expiry and reassessment triggers.

Part III - Report classes

Each class serves a defined audience and intended use.

Class	Report	Audience

Final doctrine

AIDCF reports and statements communicate an approved assurance record. They do not create evidence, improve a score, neutralise UNKNOWN, override a critical gate, transfer assurance or establish certification. Every package remains bounded, traceable, appropriately protected, consistent with the technical record and authorised by a competent issuer.
